

CANADA BASKETBALL CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICS

DEFINITIONS

1. The following terms have these meanings in this Policy:
 - a) “Individuals” – All categories of membership defined in Canada Basketball Bylaws, as well as all individuals engaged in activities with Canada Basketball, including but not limited to, athletes, coaches, officials, directors, officers, volunteers, committee members, managers and administrators.

PURPOSE

2. The purpose of this Code of Conduct and Ethics is to ensure a safe and positive environment within Canada Basketball programs, activities and events, by making all individuals aware that there is an expectation of appropriate behavior, consistent with the values of Canada Basketball, at all times.
3. Canada Basketball is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect. Further, Canada Basketball supports equal opportunity and prohibits discriminatory practices. Members of Canada Basketball are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with the values of Canada Basketball that include fairness, integrity, open communication and mutual respect.
4. Conduct that violates this Code of Conduct and Ethics may be subject to sanctions pursuant to this Policy, and may be further dealt with under Canada Basketball’s Discipline and Complaints Policy.

- k) Respect the decisions of the majority and resign if unable to do so.
- l) Commit the time to attend meetings and to be diligent in preparation for, and participation in, discussions at such meetings.
- m) Have a thorough knowledge and understanding of all Canada Basketball governance documents.
- n) Conform to the bylaws and policies approved by Canada Basketball, in particular this Code of Conduct as well as the Conflict of Interest Policy and Confidentiality Agreement.

Coaches

9. In addition to paragraph 7 (above), coaches have additional responsibilities. The coach-athlete relationship is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal, sport, and athletic development of the athlete. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it, consciously or unconsciously. Coaches will:

- a) Meet the highest standards of credentials, integrity and suitability, including but not limited to such considerations established by Canada Basketball Screening Policy, so that the community is satisfied it has minimized the risk of an unsafe environment.
- b) Report any ongoing criminal investigation, conviction or existing bail conditions, including those for violence; child pornography; or possession, use or sale of any illegal substance.
- c) Under no circumstances provide, promote or condone the use of drugs (other than properly prescribed medications) or performance-enhancing substances and, in the case of minors, alcoholic beverages and/or tobacco.
- d) Respect all other teams and athletes from other teams and, in dealings with them, not encroach upon topics or actions which are deemed to be within the realm of 'coaching', unless first receiving approval from the coach who is responsible for the team or athlete(s) involved.
- e) Not engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under the age of 18 years, or an intimate or sexual relation with an athlete over the age of 18 if the coach is in a position of power, trust or authority over such athlete.
- f) Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment. Coaches have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights.

- g) Dress professionally, neatly and inoffensively.
- h) Use offensive language, taking into account the audience being addressed.

Athletes

10. In addition to paragraph 7 (above), athletes will have additional responsibilities to:

- a) Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, where such problems may limit the athlete's ability to travel, train or compete.
- b) Participate and appear on time, well-nourished and prepared to participate to one's best abilities in all competitions, practices, training sessions, events, activities, or projects.
- c) Properly represent oneself and not attempt to enter a competition for which one is not eligible, by reason of age, classification, or other reason.
- d) Adhere to Canada Basketball's rules and requirements regarding clothing and equipment
- e) Never ridicule a participant for a poor performance or practice.
- f) Act in a sportsmanlike manner and not display appearances of violence, foul language, or gestures to other players, officials, coaches, or spectators.
- g) Dress in a manner representative of Canada Basketball with focus being on neatness, cleanliness, and discretion. Designated official clothing, if applicable, must be worn when traveling and competing.
- h) Act in accordance with Canada Basketball's policies and procedures and, when applicable, additional rules as outlined by coaches or chaperones.

Officials

11. In addition to paragraph 7 (above), officials will have additional responsibilities to:

- a) Accept an assignment to officiate at a match only if one intends to honor that commitment. If, for any reason, one is unable to attend, let the person in charge of officials know as soon as possible.
- b) Be fair and objective.
- c) Avoid situations in which a conflict of interest may arise.
- d) Be as impartial, unobtrusive and inconspicuous as possible.
- e) Conduct all events according to the rules of Canada Basketball
- f) Make independent judgments.
