

JAMES NAISMITH
BUILDER

Nora McDermott-Athlete Induction Class of 1996

- Born June 25, 1927 in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada
- McDermott played from 1945 to 1946 and then from 1948 to 1949 on the UBC Thunderettes basketball team
- McDermott played 14 years with Vancouver Eilers basketball team, winning the Canadian championship 9 consecutive times in the 1950's
- McDermott played for Canada's team at Pan Am 3 times as a player and once as a team manager
- She attended the World Championship in 1955, 1959 and 1963
- McDermott's final managerial stint came in handling a team of players aged over 65 known as the Retreads, who were featured in a documentary titled The Oldest Basketball Team in the World.
- Died May 16, 2013

