

Frank Baldwin— Coach Induction Class of 1979

- Born in Nova Scotia, Baldwin is affectionately known as “Mr. Basketball”
- In 1939 began coaching the Oxford Junior High School Team
- Founded the Saint Mary’s University Huskies men’s basketball program in 1952
- Coached the team for 10 years before starting a youth program with the Canadian Martyr’s Church of Halifax in the 1960’s
- Basketball coordinator for Sport Nova Scotia from 1972-1986, continued to coach at the provincial and national level
- His legacy in the sport lives on in an award in his honour granted to individuals who have made a significant, long-term contribution to the development of basketball

