

Leo Rautins—Athlete Induction Class of 1997

- Born in Toronto, Ontario
- Attended St Michael's College School in Toronto
- Named to the Canadian Senior Men's National Team at age 16
- Played for Minnesota 1978-1979 and Syracuse 1980-1983, where he was the first player in the Big East to record a triple-double
- First Canadian to be drafted in the 1st round of the NBA Draft by the 76ers in 1983, he played 32 games
- Play in the NBA for Indiana Pacers and Atlanta Hawks in 1984
- Continued playing in Continental Basketball Association and European Leagues until retiring in 1993
- Member of Canadian Men's National Team coaching staff before his current stint as commentator for the Toronto Raptors TV Network

