ELIGIBILITY:

Any person is eligible for election as an Honoured Member of the Canadian Basketball Hall of Fame who has achieved an outstanding record of excellence. The five categories of membership in the Canadian Basketball Hall of Fame are defined as follows:

ATHLETES Athletes are individuals who, while Canadian citizens, have participated as a player at an elite level and have achieved outstanding and extraordinary success as a player in the sport of basketball at the amateur and/or professional level.

TEAMS Teams are made up of athletes who represent Canada, a province, a municipality or a Canadian organization or corporation that have accomplished outstanding or extraordinary results nationally and/or internationally that has brought prominence to the sport of basketball in Canada.

COACHES Coaches are individuals whose tireless efforts and expertise in the development and training of basketball athletes has made an outstanding and extraordinary contribution to the sport of basketball in Canada and/or internationally.

OFFICIALS Officials are individuals who have exhibited outstanding and extraordinary skill and expertise as referees, as evidenced by their participation at an elite level of competition, nationally and internationally. Such individuals must also have contributed significantly to the training and development of basketball officials in Canada.

BUILDERS Builders are individuals who have made outstanding and extraordinary contributions towards the promotion, development and advancement of basketball in Canada, and without restricting the generality of the foregoing may include administrators, officials, trainers, managers, coaches, and doctors. Such contribution should be national in scope.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION:

Nominees must be:

- 1) A Canadian Citizen, or
- 2) A resident of Canada for a minimum of 3 years, or
- 3) Born in Canada, or
- 4) Made their distinguished contribution to the game of basketball in Canada.

Category-Specific Criteria:

ATHLETES Players must be retired from playing status at their highest level of competition (i.e., CIS, National Team, etc.) for 5 years before they are eligible for nomination.

Voting for players must be based on the player's record, playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character, and contribution to the teams on which the player participated. The player's overall contribution to the game of basketball in general must also be considered.

TEAMS For teams to be eligible for nomination, 5 years must have elapsed from the date of the significant milestone which forms the basis for the nomination.

COACHES For coaches to be eligible for nomination, they must be retired from professional coaching activity for 2 years, or 1 year if 65 or older, or have been an active coach for at least 25 years.

OFFICIALS Officials must be retired from actively officiating for 2 years, or 1 year if 65 or older, in order to be eligible for nomination.

BUILDERS Builders are exempt from specific timelines with respect to nomination.
